About This Book

The royal family of Poshtonia is coming to town to visit their vacation castle, and everyone is invited to greet them at the airport! That means a real king and queen and Princess Stephanie will be coming! Everyone is gathered as the royal airplane comes to a stop, but Olivia gets pushed to the back of the crowd and can't see! How will she ever know what a real princess looks like?

Olivia needs some cheering up after the disaster at the airport, so her parents take her out for her favourite ice cream — cherry chocolate chunk! While at the ice cream shop, the royal carriage breaks down outside and Olivia gets to have ice cream with Princess Stephanie! They both realize that they look almost exactly alike, and decide to switch spots for a day. Olivia and Stephanie discover how exciting it can be to walk in someone else's shoes. Join them as they discover why it is best to just be you!
