

FALL 2010 EDITORIAL HIGHLIGHTS

September

- NATIONAL White House Report Card: Is Obama Fulfilling His Campaign Promises?
The Debate Over the Death Penalty
- INTERNATIONAL Globalization: Can American Teens Compete?
Cuba: Life After Fidel
- HISTORY The Bill of Rights: Then and Now
John Brown's Raid
- DEBATE Should We Raise Fuel-Efficiency Standards?
Should Supreme Court Justices Continue to Have Life Tenure?

October

- NATIONAL Supreme Court Preview
Minimum Wage: Time for an Increase?
- INTERNATIONAL Coming of Age Series: Teens in India
Afghanistan: Can the Taliban Be Defeated?
- HISTORY The Mexican-American War Still Matters Today
1920: Women Get the Vote
- DEBATE Should Cell Phones Be Banned in Schools?
Is It Time to Close the Prison at Guantánamo?

November

- NATIONAL Climate Change: What Can the U.S. Do?
The Battle Over Immigration Reform
- INTERNATIONAL Is Russia a Democracy?
Africa's Food Crisis
- HISTORY Gandhi and Indian Independence
1960: The Kennedy-Nixon Debates
- DEBATE Should Women Be Allowed in Combat?
Should the Electoral College Be Abolished?

December

- NATIONAL The First Amendment and the Internet
Civil Rights: Old Cases, New Challenges
- INTERNATIONAL Is China the Next Superpower?
Brazil's Arrival on the World Stage
- HISTORY Huckleberry Finn, 125 Years Later
The Origins of the Middle East Conflict
- DEBATE Should Colleges End Early Admissions?
Should Congress Impose Higher Gas Taxes?

In order to provide subscribers with the most relevant material, the editors of The New York Times Upfront may change editorial content as needed.

To order your subscription for the 2010–2011 school year, call 1-800-SCHOLASTIC.